Scale 1:

Technical drawing of a cross-section of a mechanical part. The drawing shows a profile with a central rectangular feature. Dimensions are indicated: a width of 10 ± 0.2 at the bottom, a height of 18 ± 0.2 for the central feature, and a total height of 36.1 for the entire part.
